The 6th DIRISA Annual National Research Data Workshop

We are delighted to invite you to the 6th DIRISA Annual National Research Data Workshop, an esteemed gathering that convenes experts and enthusiasts from various domains pertinent to research data. The workshop aims to propel the progress of data-intensive research and foster an enhanced comprehension of research data management, with a keen focus on augmenting the quality of life in South Africa and the broader African context.

In an era characterized by digital ubiquity and interconnectivity, the significance of this workshop cannot be overstated. It serves as a cornerstone for nurturing a data-literate society, facilitating invaluable networking opportunities, and fostering collaborative connections among like-minded individuals. By fostering the exchange of innovative ideas and best practices, participants are empowered to extrapolate insights applicable across diverse domains.
