SAVE THE DATE

National Scholarly Editors' Forum (NSEF) Meeting 2026

hosted by the Scholarly Publishing Programme (SPP) of the Academy of Science of South Africa (ASSAf)

Strengthening South African Scholarly Publishing in a Changing Research Environment

Programme highlights:

- Keynote: A Decade of Change in the DHET Journal List
- Editors, Academics & Research Offices
- Editorial Quality & Governance
- Publications Quality Framework (PQF)
- Journal Infrastructure & Metadata
- Open Access, APCs & Equity
- AI & Research Integrity
- The Future of South African Scholarly Publishing

Dates:
24–25 November 2026

Format:
Online

Time:
09:00–15:30 each day

RSVP:
Click here to register

The programme will prioritise discussion, practical exchange and collective reflection among editors and key stakeholders.

The annual forum brings together South Africa's scholarly journal editors and key stakeholders to reflect on current developments, share experiences and collectively strengthen the scholarly publishing environment.

Further programme details will follow.

For queries, please contact Mrs Mmaphuthi Rametse at mmaphuthi@assaf.org.za.

We look forward to your participation.

science, technology & innovation
Department:
Science, Technology and Innovation
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

30 years ASSAf
ACADEMY OF SCIENCE OF SOUTH AFRICA